ALTERATIONS TO SIGNALLING AND PERMANENT WAY

between BLACKFRIARS and FARRINGDON

MONDAY 28 MAY 1990

DRIVERS TO KEEP A GOOD LOOK-OUT FOR HAND SIGNALS

New track and signalling will be introduced as shown on the diagram overleaf.

The track will be realigned in a new section of Snow Hill tunnel, and a new station, St. Paul's Thameslink, will be opened in the tunnel.

Between Blackfriars and Farringdon Jn. the lines will be known as the Down and Up Snow Hill lines throughout.

DIGITAL ARCHIVE

This PDF Copy has been provided free of charge by David Allen in order to assist your research into UK signalling.

This file is one of a number scanned by David Allen using material from his own collection and from the collections of Phil Deaves, Robert Dey, David Ingham, Simon Lowe, John McCrickard, John Midcalf, Roger Newman, Richard Pulleyn and Chris Wolstenholmes. Thank you one and all. Many of the original documents are now in the SRS Archive or at the National Railway Museum.

You may also like to provide copies of Signalling Notices and Weekly (and periodical) Operating Notices as scans or as originals. The SRS is always willing to accept donations of any signalling or signalling related material for inclusion in the Society's Archive. Please contact the Archivist in the first instance.

For a list of PDFs currently available visit the list of Weekly Notices or Signalling Notices page.

If you have benefited from this PDF copy, why not join the Signalling Record Society and receive support for your researches and access to the Society's Archives

Members receive "The Signalling Record" six times annually plus a newsletter and have the opportunity to purchase SRS books and other publications at a discount. They also have access to back issues of The Newsletter and The Signalling Record which are only available to members. These contain a wealth of information accumulated since 1970, much of which is not readily available anywhere else.

In addition, Members have the opportunity to join signalling related visits to locations on the UK national and London Underground systems; and to other UK Railways.
