SIGNALLING RECORD SOCIETY

RULES

These rules are made under the authority given by Clause 26 of the Society's Constitution and are to be read in conjunction with that Constitution. They were authorised by the trustees on 18th February 2018. A record of Amendments appears page 6.

1 NAME

- 1.1 The name of the society is the Signalling Record Society ("the Society").

2 MEMBERSHIP

- 2.1 Eligibility for membership and admission procedures are set out in Clause 9 of the Constitution.
- 2.2 Applications for membership shall be in writing or by completion of an on-line form and sent to the membership secretary.
- 2.3 Subscriptions will not normally be refunded on termination of membership.
- 2.4 Any permanent change of physical or email address should be notified promptly to the membership secretary.

3 CONDUCT OF MEMBERS

- 3.1 Members may not use the name of the Society nor claim to represent it without the authority of the committee, neither may they use names of other members without the consent of those members.
- 3.2 Membership of the Society confers no right of access to property which is not open to the public.
- 3.3 Members are expected to abide by the Constitution and rules of the Society, and to act with reasonable behaviour to each other, both verbally and in writing. Discrimination of any sort against any member of the Society is unacceptable.
- 3.4 Any member who has cause to complain about another member's conduct may contact the Secretary who will record the complaint and the matter will be dealt with in accord with the Society's complaints handling policy.

4 SUBSCRIPTION

- 4.1 The classes of membership and the associated level of fees shall be determined by the trustees in accordance with clause 9 of the constitution.
- 4.2 The annual subscription for any calendar year shall be payable on or before the first day of December of the preceding year or on such date as the committee may determine.
- 4.3 The committee may allow that subscriptions paid by new members joining late in the calendar year are extended up to and including the end of the calendar year following the date on which the application is made. In such circumstances the new member shall have no entitlement to receive issues of the journal or other material published or distributed prior to their joining.

- 4.4 Honorary life membership may be granted by a general meeting of the Society to persons who have given outstanding service to the Society over an extended period, or who have promoted the aims of the Society in an outstanding way such as through their research, publication or public speaking. The proposal for such an award should be made by a specific motion to the general meeting in accordance with the rules in force at the time of the proposal.
- 4.5 The membership secretary will contact listed life members every five years to ensure that there has been no change in their circumstances.

5 COMMITTEE

- 5.1. The trustees shall be members of the Society.
- 5.2. The affairs of the Society shall be managed by the committee of trustees which shall consist of the chair, secretary and the treasurer (“the Officers”), and not more than nine ordinary members. The chair, secretary and treasurer shall be elected annually. At least half of the non-officer members of the committee shall be elected at each annual general meeting and shall hold office for no more than two years after which they shall retire and be eligible for re-election.
- 5.3. The committee shall have the authority to appoint members including trustees to other positions as it considers necessary for the efficient conduct of the Society’s business. These may include appointments to such positions as editor; research co-ordinator; membership secretary; archivist; webmaster etc. The Committee will determine the conditions and terms of reference for such appointees.
- 5.4. All appointments are honorary.
- 5.5. Society Officers, trustees and members appointed to specific tasks shall be entitled to be indemnified by the Society in respect of any liability incurred by them in good faith on behalf of the Society.

6 LOCAL AREAS and LOCAL OFFICERS

- 6.1 The committee may allocate funds and appoint members to organise and co-ordinate aspects of the society’s activities in localised geographical areas.
- 6.2 The activities of local area officers shall be recorded by the Secretary, and monitored by the committee.
- 6.3 Each local area officer shall pass statements for that local area’s funds to the treasurer in time for their inclusion in the Society’s general accounts.
- 6.4 The committee shall disband or re-organise local areas and personnel as it considers appropriate.
- 6.5 Local area officers shall be entitled to be indemnified by the society in respect of any liability incurred by them in good faith on behalf of the society.

7 EXPENDITURE AND ACCOUNTS

- 7.1 The committee will not be responsible for any expenditure or commitment made by any member of the Society unless the said expenditure has been authorised in advance by the committee.
- 7.2 Officers and committee members may receive reasonable travelling expenses when supported by tickets, receipts, etc for attendance at committee meetings. Such expenses shall be set by the committee and be shown as an item in the accounts at the annual general meeting.
- 7.3 The committee will be responsible for the finances of the society.
- 7.4 In accordance with all applicable statutory requirements, the committee shall appoint an independent examiner or auditor, who has the requisite ability and practical experience to carry out a competent examination or audit, as the case may be, of the annual report and accounts. The appointed person(s) shall not be members of the society. The committee's decision shall be notified to the Annual General Meeting each year.
- 7.5 In the event that the appointed independent examiner or auditor becomes unable or unwilling to undertake the examination or audit, the committee shall appoint a new independent examiner or auditor as defined in rule 7.4.
- 7.6 The financial year shall be from the first day of January to the last day of December of the same calendar year.

8 CALLING OF MEETINGS and CONDUCT OF ELECTIONS

- 8.1 The secretary shall be responsible for calling general and committee meetings, and shall keep proper and accurate minutes of all such meetings.
- 8.2 The secretary shall be responsible for ensuring that elections are conducted in a proper manner and in accordance with these procedures.
- 8.3 If the number of nominations for a post on the committee exceeds the number of vacancies the following procedure shall be adopted:-
  - 8.3.1 The secretary will write to all nominees after the close of nominations (see Rule 9.1) advising them that there will be a ballot and of the procedure for the election.
  - 8.3.2 The ballot will be a secret ballot on papers previously prepared by the secretary.
  - 8.3.3 At the general meeting during which the election will be held, the secretary will appoint two scrutineers who are not seeking election to the committee and who have not nominated any of the candidates; these scrutineers will distribute, collect, and each count the ballot papers when required from the chair.
  - 8.3.4 All new nominees will introduce themselves to the meeting by one of the following:-
    - Give a one minute speech; or
    - Nominate somebody to give a one minute speech on their behalf; or
    - Make available a written handout (100 words max).
  - 8.3.5 Only members present at the annual general meeting shall be eligible to vote.
  - 8.3.6 Each member in 8.3.5 above will be able to vote for a number of candidates up to the number of vacancies, beyond which the ballot paper will be adjudged spoiled.
  - 8.3.7 The member(s) elected shall be those having the highest number of votes, counting equally the votes on each and every paper.
  - 8.3.8 The ballot papers shall be kept by the secretary for six months before disposal.

9 GENERAL MEETINGS

- 9.1 General meetings of the members shall be called in accordance with Clause 11 of the Constitution.
- 9.2 Nominations for trustee appointments and members' proposed resolutions must be received by the secretary in accordance with, and by the date specified in, the notice of the meeting which date shall be not less than six weeks prior to the date of the meeting. Written notice of the date, place and business including of nominations and proposed resolutions shall be sent to every member not less than 14 days before the date of the meeting.
- 9.3 A special general meeting shall only consider the specific business for which it was convened.
- 9.4 Nominations for trustees, including the "Officers" defined in Rule 5.2, shall be in a format laid down from time to time by the trustees. Nomination forms shall be submitted in writing and signed by the nominee, proposer and seconder.
